Disha Experts,2019-07-19 Teaching English for Tourism Michael Ennis,Gina Petrie,2019-07-04 Teaching English for Tourism initiates a sustained academic discussion on the teaching and learning of English to tourism professionals or to students who aspire to build a career in the tourism industry Responding to a gap in the field this is the first book of its kind to explore the implications of research in English for tourism Eft within the field of English for specific purposes This edited volume brings together teachers and researchers of Eft from diverse national and institutional contexts focusing on connecting current research in Eft contexts to classroom implications It considers a wide range of themes related to the teaching of Eft including theoretical concepts methodological frameworks and specific teaching methods The book explores topics relating to the impact of changing technologies the need for cultural understanding and support for writing development among others Teaching English for Tourism explores this growing area of English for specific purposes and allows for researchers and practitioners to share their findings in an academic context This unique book is ideal reading for researchers post graduate students and professionals working in the fields of English language teaching and learning A Study of Hospital Food Service Centralized with a University Food Service Robert Garner Wilson,1962 Strengthening Food Labeling Policies in Brazil Rosires Deliza,Camila Corvalan,Fabio Gomes,Simon Barquera,2023-10-11 Data from Brazil shows an increase in obesity and non communicable diseases which is related to the expansion of the participation of ultra processed food products in diets and in the food environment displacing fresh and minimally processed foods and meals prepared with them One of the solutions to improve food environments requires the implementation of effective and adequate food labeling regulations including front of package labeling This policy tool has the potential to inform the consumers about the nutrients ingredients or any other component of public health concern contained in the products and facilitate healthier food choices Blended Learning Francine S. Glazer,2023-07-03 This is a practical introduction to blended learning presenting examples of implementation across a broad spectrum of disciplines For faculty unfamiliar with this mode of teaching it illustrates how to address the core challenge of blended learning to link the activities in each medium so that they reinforce each other to create a single unified course and offers models they can adapt Francine Glazer and the contributors to this book describe how they integrate a wide range of pedagogical approaches in their blended courses use groups to build learning communities and make the online environment attractive to students They illustrate under what circumstances particular tasks and activities work best online or face to face and when to incorporate synchronous and asynchronous interactions They introduce the concept of layering the content of courses to appropriately sequence material for beginning and experienced learners and to ensure that students see both the online and the face to face components as being equal in value and devote equal effort to both modalities The underlying theme of this book is encouraging students to develop the skills to continue learning throughout their lives By allowing students to take more time and reflect on the course content blended learning can promote more student engagement and consequently deeper learning It appeals to today s digital natives who are accustomed to using technology to find and share information communicate and collaborate and also enables non traditional students to juggle their commitments more efficiently and successfully
